Jared Nelson Godddard

A colorful character

by V.G. Johnson

Jared Nelson Goddard was born between 1806 and 1809 in Greene County, PA, the son of Henry Kellam Goddard and Dorcas Long. Later, Henry K. Goddard and his family moved to West Virginia, where Henry died about 1836.

Henry's son, Jared Nelson Goddard, was a very colorful character who led a most interesting life. On May 16, 1828, he married Martha (Patty) Garner, daughter of Joshua Garner and Polly Yoho. They were the parents of eight children, all born in Marshall county, WV: The children were: Cornelius, who died in infancy; Samuel, born in 1830, married Eliza Fair; Joshua, born 1832, married Martha Anguish; Thomas and John who died in infancy; Mary, born 1837, married William Allen; Alice Rachel, born 1843, married Wesley Taylor; and James Patterson Goddard, born 1845, married Jane Rush. Jared Nelson Goddard's adventures really began sometime after 1845, when his last child was born. He supposedly traded his farm for a horse, and left the area, heading West. He went alone, leaving behind his wife and children, and disappeared from sight.

Jared's next appearance is in Richmond, OH some 12 miles from Cincinnati. He was seemingly married to a woman named Sarah Frost, and had a daughter Jane, born in 1845 in Virginia (possibly West Virginia) and a son, Joseph, born in Ohio in 1847. By 1853, Jared and his new family are found in Athens, Missouri, but Sarah had died just nine days after their arrival there.

In August 1854, Jared Nelson Goddard married Nancy Hardesty Cummings Lemaster, who had been born in Belmont county, Ohio in 1819. They moved from Missouri to Croton, Lee county, Iowa, to a farm which Nancy had inherited from her second marriage. There the couple had three children: Leander, Samuel and Rebecca.

Eight years later, on December 15, 1862, in the midst of the Civil War, Jared embarked on another adventure. At the age of 53, he enlisted in Co. C of the 37th Regiment of the Iowa Volunteer Infantry. The 37th Iowa Volunteer Infantry was known as the 'Graybeard Regiment' because it was composed almost entirely of old men. It was organized by the U.S. War Department to show that older men could also go to war. Records show that the oldest man was 80 years old, several were in their 70s, and many were in their 60s. So Jared, at 53, was far from being the oldest. These men did not see combat, but did guard duty at prisons, railroads and arsenals across the country. Jared held the ranks of Private, Corporal and Second Corporal; his military record describes him as 5'8" tall, dark complexion, with hazel eyes and hair 'mixed'. He served 3 years, being mustered out May 24, 1865 in Davenport, Iowa.

The end of Jared's service in the war did not mean an end to the interesting twists and turns of his life. It is said that toward the end of the war, either by letter or when he was home on furlough in the fall of 1864, Jared asked Nancy to sell the Croton farm. He said he would use the proceeds to either rent or buy a farm somewhere else. Nancy did as he asked, and mailed the deed to him for his signature. Then she moved to nearby Keokuk, Iowa to wait for Jared to come home.

When he was discharged from the Army, he took the train to the town of Montrose and then walked the remaining twelve miles home. But he stayed only a few days and then left, asking Nancy for a little bit of money so he could "hunt up a farm." Nancy never heard from him again and neither did any of their children.

Over the years, the family heard several rumors of Jared's whereabouts. One story had him returning to Cincinnati. Another said he had been seen in Kentucky. Perhaps the most interesting story was told to Nancy's son by her previous marriage, Peter Lemaster. A man known to the family as "Doc" Kennedy had a patent on a brick machine and traveled all over the country with the machine. Kennedy told Peter that when he was in West Virginia, he had heard that Jared had been murdered there as a result of informing on moonshiners.

The big mystery is — what really happened to Jared Nelson Goddard? The truth is, he returned to West Virginia after the Civil War and on January 1, 1874, he remarried his first wife, Martha (Patty) Garner! Both of their marriages, the first in 1828 and the second in 1874, are on record in Ohio and Marshall counties in West Virginia.

So forty-six years after their first marriage and some thirty years after leaving Martha behind, Jared returned to West Virginia to his first family. What a shock that must have been to everyone concerned! But Jared wasn't through moving. Not long after they remarried, the couple apparently moved out West, because we know that Martha (Patty) Garner Goddard died in Oklahoma in 1886, and Jared is thought to have died in Texas, the date not known. Most of Jared and Martha's children moved West too, living in Texas, Oklahoma, Indiana and Colorado.

IN MEMORIAM

HELEN RUTH GODDARD CARSON

1912-1995

CM-278

Helen Ruth Goddard Carson was born 15 March 1912 in Seville, TN and passed away 1 May 1995 in Rockwood, TN. She married Judson H. Carson (1910-1983) on 23 July 1937 in Dandridge, TN. Helen graduated with a BS degree in Home Economics from the University of Tennessee and was a public school teacher from 1933-1939 and 1952-1977 when she retired. She was active in church, professional and civic organizations. Helen is survived by her daughters, Evelyn C. Mankel, CO; Martha C. Phelps, NM and Jeanette Hedgecock, CO; one grandson, Judson D. Hedgecock; a brother Herman E. Goddard, TN and a sister Barbara G. Johnstone, AZ. She descended from Joseph and Elizabeth (Jordan) Goddard, TN.

BERNICE EVELYN GROSSE MC INTYRE

CM-233

Bernice Evelyn Grosse McIntyre was born 31 December 1926 in Los Angeles, CA and passed away 8 February 1995 in Redding, CA after a long battle with breast cancer. She and Robert Bruce McIntyre were married 7 February 1947 in Santa Rose, CA. Bernice was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints where she was the church organist and pianist. She was also involved in the youth programs but she was most proud of her work as director of the Redding Family History Center of the LDS church in Redding. She was active in the Goddard Association and was a member of the executive committee. Bernice is survived by her husband Robert B. McIntyre, CA; five daughters, Faye Emad, CA; Alice Prather, OR, Louise Henderson, CA; Janet Senini, NV and Jill King, OR; a half-sister Elenore Mehr, CA and twenty-two grandchildren. Her husband descends from Daniel Gozzard, CT.

What happened to Jared's third wife, Nancy Hardesty Cummings Lemaster Goddard? She spent her remaining years living with some of her children, until her death at the age of 81. She is buried next to many of her children and other Hardesty family members.

And how was the mystery of Jared Nelson Goddard solved? Jared's first cousin, 4 times removed, is Linda Goddard Stout of New Martinsville, West Virginia. Linda's great-great-great-grandfather, Joshua Goddard, was a brother of Jared's father, Henry Kellam Goddard. Linda shared her information about the West Virginia side of the story with Nancy Truax of Rochester, MN, a great-great-granddaughter of Nancy Hardesty Cummings Lemaster Goddard. And Nancy Truax gave Linda information about Jared's life with his second and third wives. Until she learned that he had returned to West Virginia, Nancy Truax and her family had never known what happened to Jared Nelson Goddard.

This article is based on one written by Linda Goddard Stout for the October 1993 issue (Vol. 17, #4) of Tri-County Researcher, the genealogical quarterly she publishes in New Martinsville, West Virginia. Our sincere thanks to her for sharing this fascinating story. Jared and his wives had some 13 children (including two Samuels); there must be many living descendants of this wandering Goddard!

GATEWAY TO THE PAST

*A Conference For The Nation's Genealogists
St. Louis, Missouri
5-7 August 1993*

Dear fellow genealogists,

Many of you joined us in Phoenix this past August and enjoyed our very successful conference there. We enjoyed meeting many of you and sharing in the camaraderie created when so many genealogists gather in the same place at the same time. The 14th annual Federation of Genealogical Societies Conference, to be co-hosted by the Missouri State Genealogical Association, will be held in St. Louis, 5-7 August 1993. A pre-conference workshop dealing with society issues will be held on 4 August 1993. The conference will prove to be another marvelous opportunity for you to advance your genealogical knowledge, and have a great deal of fun in the process.

A national-level genealogical conference is an exhilarating experience! If you haven't yet attended one, here is your chance. Come and join us as we enhance our skills, further our knowledge of resources, advance our understanding of methodology, and last but certainly not least, share our obsession in chasing illusive ancestors with others who are equally obsessed.

Once again this conference will feature sessions for every skill level (beginner through professional) on virtually every aspect of genealogy including ethnic and foreign research, regional/state research, computers, society management, methodology, resources and more. The exhibit hall will be packed with vendors displaying the latest in books, forms, computer software and various genealogical services.

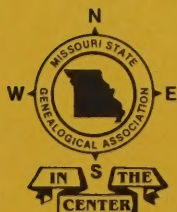

Would you like to know more about the conference? Would you like to see a complete listing of the sessions? The complete information and registration packets will be mailed early in 1993 to those who have requested them. To get your name on the list simply return the request slip below to the FGS office. We'll see that you get your registration packet just as soon as it's off the press.

Plan now to meet us in St. Louis!

Sincerely,

The Board of Directors
Federation of Genealogical Societies

The Pension Office obtained depositions from various people as Nancy Goddard was trying to obtain Jared's Civil War Pension when she was about 80 years old as she needed money to live and she couldn't prove she 3-446. Married Jared or that he was dead.

DEPOSITION

This depo is one from Jared Goddard Delp, Jared's daughter.

Case of Nancy Goddard, No. 64678

On this 12 day of June, 1897, at near Allenton county of Illinois State of Mo., before me, E. E. Clark, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Jane Delp, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 58 years of age; my post-office address is Allenton
Mo. Am the wife of Andrew Delp
a laborer
Jared C. Goddard was my father.
Bura Goddard was my mother.
Her maiden name was Frost.
My mother died at Athens Ga.
Co Mo. when I was nine years old. I was present when she died. I never heard father or mother say that he had been married before he married mother.
I was not present when father married the Civil but father married her in about two years after mother died. I never saw the Civil till after she married father. I lived with father and Civil after they married, or made my home with them most of the time till during the war. I worked out till I married which was in 1862 - the last time I saw father was when he came home on furlough. This was after I married and was his ing in Hamilton Ill direct opposite Rockport. I heard the

My father was discharged, and had been home, and had gone away in about a week after he came home, I think - I heard at that time, that father had gone to look for a farm. He wanted to buy a farm. The Aunt told me this within two weeks after he left. I was then at her home in Kensuk Iowa. She was uneasy about him then. She, I and all of us were afraid that he had been murdered and that that was why he did not come home or write to some of us. I have never heard from my father
since he left home as aforesaid.
My father was born in Virginia
but just where I never heard.
He married a mother in Virginia.
I was born there, and when a child my parents moved to Ohio, 12 miles from Cincinnati

days before he died. - Noah Frost

Virginia, and were sons of my father, by a woman to whom he was married before he married my mother, that their names were Goddard. She never said whether she believed them or not. I never heard that father had been accused or suspected of having stolen or taken away any cattle from the Gray for any one else. I know that there was animosity between father and some people on account of politics at Athens. I have heard Aunt Mary say that she had been married twice before she married father. I don't know that father had any brothers or sisters. I never heard that he had. My brother Josephus is dead. I never heard that father and Aunt Mary had any domestic troubles. I think they got along pleasantly all the time. I have never heard that any one had seen father since he left home as aforesaid. My brother told me that he had written several places enquiring about Father but never got any trace of him. I know that he was proud of his children and think that had he been alive he would have written to us. When we lived in Ohio, he lived in Richmond, I think 12 miles from Cincinnati on Ohio river. Father owned a house there. I have never heard that Father took up or lived with any other woman after he married the Olcott.

Have understood the questions asked me and my answers are correctly recorded in this deposition.

APPROVED

FEB 17 1931

MC 478174

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Administrator of Veterans Affairs be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pensions laws—

The name of Elisabeth E. Goddard, widow of David Goddard, late of Company C, Fifteenth Regiment West Virginia Volunteer Infantry, and pay her a pension at the rate of $50 per month in lieu of that she is now receiving.

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of that part of act relating to beneficiary named, as it appears in copy certified by the State Department and on file in Law Division.

COUNTY COURT OF MORGAN COUNTY.

OFFICE OF THE CLERK.

H. R. 11108. Elisabeth E. Goddard, aged 83 years, whose post-office address is Moundsville, W. Va., is the widow of David Goddard, late a private, Company C, Fifteenth Regiment West Virginia Infantry, from August 12, 1862, to June 14, 1865, and who died February 22, 1899.

Applicant and the late soldier were married January 3, 1876.

She is now pensioned as the soldier's widow at the rate of $40 per month under certificate No. 478174.

The medical evidence filed in support of this bill indicates applicant is in condition to require the personal aid and attendance of another person by reason of affliction from paralysis agitans, weakness of spine, and severe deafness. She is pale, weak, shaky, and walks with difficulty.

The evidence also shows that she has title to real estate valued at $500. It does not appear she has other means or income from any source except her pension.

No one is legally bound to her support.

It is recommended her pension be increased to $50 per month.

NOTES.

The act of June 27, 1890, requires, in case of a soldier:

- (1) An honorable discharge (but the certificate need not be filed unless called for).
- (2) A minimum service of ninety days.
- (3) A mental or physical disability of a permanent character not due to vicious habits. (It need not have originated in the service.)
- (4) The rates under the act are graded from $6 to $12, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support, and are not affected by the rank held.
- (5) A pensioner under prior laws may apply under this one, or a pensioner under this one may apply under other laws, but he cannot draw more than one pension for the same period.

Dear Gen. —

I am consulted

by Joseph Loddard, formerly Private Co "E" 4th Iowa
Inf. Regt., Mar 1861-5, relative to his claim for pension, the No. of which he does not know, he having lost his papers. He says he applied for pension about June or July, 1882, as nearly as he now recollects, on account of disabled broken left leg resulting from a shell explosion while in service as a soldier at Dallas or New Hope Church, Georgia, in 1864, while with 15th Army Corps—Sherman's Army—"March to the Sea"

He says he made his application at Keokuk Iowa, and subsequently came to Texas, received order for Medical examination at Keokuk, which he procured exchanged and was ordered for examination at Houston Texas.

an attorney, by name one Major Crook, now deceased, whose brother-in-law Dr. J. M. Cowling was the Medical Examiner before whom personhood was for examination, and between whom and said atty there was a feud, and that said atty told claimant that said Dr would so report his examination as that he would get nothing in consequence of his said Crook's connection as atty with claimant that the rejection of his claim as not being disabled in a pensionable degree confirmed the atty's prediction. That he then was disabled and is now disabled to a pensionable degree by reason of the aforesaid broken-leg resulting from said shell explosion.

He says his claim was proven up, he thinks, as to incurrence of disability, wherefore he asks that his said claim be reopened and examination ordered before the Austin Board, on Special Examination as you may see best. Said shell explosion produced broken ^{left} leg above knee. Left hand bad

> Mary Jane Hill, daughter of Caleb and Joanna Hill, was born in Virginia, August 13, 1839. She died at her home near Oakland, IL, Dec. 9, 1911, aged 72 > years, 3 months, 26 days. On May 26, 1860, she was united in marriage to Alexander Hunt. To this union seven children were born. Her husband was taken July 3, 1872. Later she was married to William Montgomery. To this union two children were born.

> She was converted several years ago, and joined the Christian Church. She leaves her husband, two children, five sisters, two brothers, several grand children, one great grand child, and a host of friends to mourn her death. She was a kind mother, and a good neighbor. She always had a good work for everyone. She has gone to the world beyond to meet her loved ones gone before.

> The Oakland Messenger Thursday Dec. 7, 1911 DOUBLE FUNERAL

> Sometimes, troubles double up on people, the visitations coming very fast. Why we are, at times, made to feel that God frowns upon us, we do not know.

> His purposes often thwart our best laid plans, and our fondest hopes fail. The spectacle of a double funeral, two caskets, two funeral cars, two funeral sermons in one, two bodies placed side by side in one common grave, one a mother, the other a son, both mature in years, two families made to mourn, and countless numbers of relatives and friends stand almost aghast at such an unusual occurrence. But so long as humanity exists we must expect the unusual, the out of the ordinary to come upon us. We live to be bereaved. It is our common lot, but double bereavements seldom come to mortals, save in great catastrophes, such as floods, wrecks or mine horrors. On Nov. 24, James Hunt passed away, and his body was laid to rest in Fairview cemetery. On Friday evening, December 8, Elmer E. Hunt, a brother of James Hunt passed away at his home, south of this city, his fatal illness coming upon him, the day his brother was buried. On Saturday morning, Dec. 9, not many hours after Elmer!

> died, his mother, also the mother of James, Mrs. William Montgomery, died at her home, southwest of this city. The two bodies were buried side by side in a common grave, at Fairview cemetery, last Sunday morning, the funeral services being conducted at the church, nearby, Elder Frank Reed of Hindsboro, officiating. He preached a most eloquent and affectionate sermon, having, just a few days before officiated at the funeral of James Hunt. A large and sympathetic concourse of friends and relatives was present to render their last tributes of love and respect to the departed ones.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

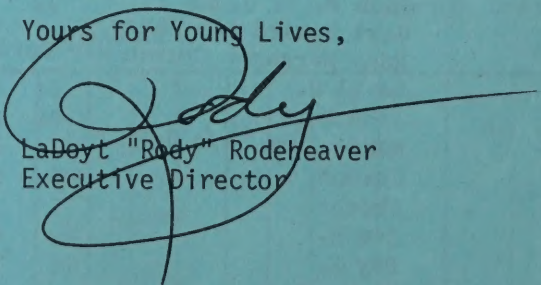

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDoyt "Rody" Rodeheaver
Executive Director

shouted: "Come on, boys, if you want your liberty!" Out marched twenty-seven men, who seized the arms of the guards and compelled them to surrender, and marched in good order toward the hills, with Luther Cremeens at their head. For a long time Cremeens remained at large and what crimes he committed during that time are not known. He was again captured and taken back to prison and succeeded in affecting his escape in 1868, and it was while he was in the second time that he became acquainted with the Jennings boys, but he was with them but a short time when he was again captured and taken back to prison. He was captured the last time by Thomas H.
Spodgrass.

FRANK GODDARD.

We will not introduce a new character, well known to the people, Frank Goddard. None of the Jennings gang was more despised than he by the people of Wetzel county. He was not a thief or robber, but a spy, and gave the necessary evidence in court needed by the defence in the trials of the Jennings boys.
He would visit the prosecuting attorney's office and try to find out the mode of procedure in the capturing of the Jennings gang, and would often denounce the Jennings boys for the purpose of securing something that might prove useful to them. There was a difficulty in proving his connection with the Jennings gang, but it was evident that he was a member.
It is also evident that he received money for his services, for he had a family to keep, who were provided for. Yet he never worked.

REASON GODDARD.

We will now introduce to the reader Frank Goddard's son, Reason Goddard. This man did little actual service for them.
He was too cowardly and worthless, says Steinmetz, who, if all reports were true, ought to know. He was one who bore dispatches, and, like his father, a spy. His stealing, if any was also have wives, husbands & children of the above 15 of names. If you are interested? I just haven't compiled and typed them in order. That is the reason for this rather primitive order I'm sending, rather than to delay a reply to you. Plus I'm hoping have more complete data when I do compile.

 My daughter also has my type writer, at present.

HARRISON YOH0

Since this man was a popular minister in Wetzel County and performed so many of the marriage ceremonies in his day, we feel his obit and a little about his family should be here. Those of you who have a copy of our Wetzel County Marriage book will notice how many times his name appears as the minister and those who have my book "Kith and Kin" will find his family on page 40 and 41.

"On April 4, 1895, at the home of his son Henry, the goodly spirit of Bro. Harrison Yoho was released from this world for its bright home in heaven, having reached the 81st. year of his age. He was born and raised in Wetzel County, W.VA. and died near the place of his birth. His Christian wife was 74 years old at the time of her death, whose spirit preceded his to the spirit land about five months. Their family consisted of five children—three sons and two daughters, one of the latter having also passed over the river, only to welcome the father and mother into their celestial home in heaven. The rest remain to mourn their loss. But they had the pleasure before they left this world of seeing all their children obey the call of their Master, and become members of the one body. Bro. Yoho had been a preacher of the gospel of Christ for over fifty years, and was widely known and tenderly loved by his brethren, and was held in high esteem by the world, as a worthy godly man. As a preacher he was like the apostle Paul; he determined to know nothing but Christ, and him crucified. He was always ready at any call, day or night to go. He never kept any memoranda of his work, but we are safe in saying that those who were made to rejoice in a Savior's love under his preaching would run up into the thousands, having organized the greater number of the congregations in this and adjoining counties. The writer conducted the funeral services in the presence of a host of sorrowing friends and relatives. His remains were interred in Antioch cemetery by the side of his beloved companion, there to await the sounding of the last trump when the dead in Christ shall rise first to receive a crown of righteousness."

J.M. Garrett

Harrison, son of George Yoho and Jane Hartley, was born 16 November, 1816 on Paugh Ridge, Wetzel County, one of six children including Barbara; Sally; Richard; Henry; and Betty. His grandfather was Henry Yoho who came to this area during the Rev. War in which he served as a PVT, a spy and scout. He was also an Indian Fighter with the Lewis brothers in this area.

Harrison preached at most of the Christian Churches of the county and also in Marshall County. He had a farm near Hall's Mills on what is now Route Seven in the vicinity of Wileyville. On 22 March, 1838 he and Martha Goddard were married in Wetzel County. She was born in Pennsylvania about 1820 daughter of Henry K. Goddard and Dorcas. Martha died 10 November, 1894 age 74 of inflammation of the lungs. They were the parents of five children and adopted and raised a daughter.

Matilda Martha born 1839 married Wesley Garlach; Raleigh "Rolly" born 24 May, 1840 married Jemima Jane Laflen; Henry N. born 22 January, 1842 married (1) Margaret Ann Goddard (2) Mary Ellen Goddard; Joanna born 11 January, 1844 died age four years; James B. born 17 January 1849 married Sarah A. Garlach; and the adopted daughter, Hannah Givens born in 1859.

Harrison's father married a second wife, Sarah Cook and had a family of nine children.

number. He had three brothers in this war, W. H., John and Franklin St. Clair. One was quartermaster at Nashville. General St. Clair, of Kentucky, and Governor St. Clair of the same State, were members of this St. Clair family. Several of Enoch St. Clair's ancestors rendered distinguished service in the war for Independence, and his great-grandfather on his mother's side, Robert Tibbs, a soldier under Washington, was killed at Braddock's defeat, while trying to save the body of Braddock. In Wetzel county, September 11, 1870, Enoch St. Clair and Harriet E. Garrett were united in marriage, and they have one daughter, Hannah S., born June 15, 1871. Harriet C. Garrett was born in Brooke county, now part of West Virginia, February 1, 1849, and her parents James and Hannah (McMahon) Garrett, are now living in Magnolia district, this county. Enoch St. Clair's postoffice address is Marion, Wetzel county, West Virginia.

DAVID F. SUTER—born in Switzerland, January 19, 1829, and Louisa Huffman, born in Germany, January 11, 1838, were united in marriage in Monroe county, Ohio, September 16, 1856. Their children were born: Emil, August 2, 1857; Frederick R., January 11, 1859; Henry B., January 31, 1861; Elizabeth and Mary, February 8, 1863; Louisa, June 22, 1865; Emma, November 8, 1867; Charles W. and Rosa C., December 25, 1871; Caroline J., June 6, 1813; Jacob, June 29, 1874; George L., October 9, 1876; Matilda R., October 29, 1878. Emil died at the age of six months; Louisa at the age of two years and six months; Mary and Elizabeth died at the age of nineteen months, and one babe was still-born. Barnhart and Elizabeth Suter, parents of David F., died in Monroe county, Ohio, and Mr. Suter's wife is a daughter of Conrad and Elizabeth Huffman, now living in Wheeling, Ohio county, West Virginia. Farming is the occupation of David F. Suter; his land lies in Proctor district, and he receives his mail at Halls Mills, Wetzel county, West Virginia.

JOHN WILEY YATER, M. D.—is a son of Reason Yater, born in Greene county, Pennsylvania, and Mary (Sheppard) Yater. His parents are now residents in Marshall county, West Virginia, and in that county he was born, December 28, 1850. He read medicine first with Dr. W. S. Howard, of Marshall county, West Virginia, attended lectures at the University at Louisville, Kentucky, 1876-7, and was graduated from Baltimore (Maryland) College of Physicians and Surgeons after studying there in 1879-80. December 30, 1881, in Marshall county, Dr. Yater was joined in wedlock with Rachel Yoho, and the one child born of their union is Edna B., whose birth was one the 6th of October, 1882. The wife of Dr. Yater was a daughter of Henry B. and Catherine (Kelley) Yoho, well-known and esteemed residents in Marshall county, and in that county she was born, October 14, 1857. Dr. J. W. Yater has a large practice in Wetzel and Marshall counties, and his postoffice is New Dale, Wetzel county, West Virginia.

REV. HARRISON YOHO—was a son of pioneer settlers of this district, and was born in Wetzel county, November 16, 1816. George and Jane (Hartley) Yoho were his parents, and he is a grandson of Henry Yoho, who was a contemporary of Lewis Wetzel, and the first settler in what is now Proctor district, Wetzel county. Henry Yoho fought the Indians in Ohio county, Virginia, and all along the river. He and his wife were buried in this county, as was their son George, father of Harrison. In Wetzel county, March 22, 1838, Harrison Yoho and Martha Goddard were married, and their children are four living and one deceased, namely: Matilda, born January 20, 1839, married Wesley Garlach, and lives in this county; Raleigh W., born May 24, 1840, married Jemima J. Laflen, and lives in this district; Henry H., born January 22, 1842, whose first wife was Margaret Goddard, second wife Mary E. Wade, with whom he is living in this district; Joanna, born January 11, 1844, died in December, 1848; James B., born January 17, 1849, married Sarah A. Garloch, and lives in Belmont county, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Yoho also adopted one child, Hannah E. Givens, born in 1859. Twenty-three grandchildren have been born to Mr.

Miss Mollie Holmes, of Ft. Ritner, spent Sunday here.

Henry Rust will erect a hay shed on his farm this week.

The corn crop is in a splendid condition and looks well.

E. S. Crabb sold his large crop of old corn and had it hauled to Seymour last week.

B. F. McFetire, Joel Lucas and M.
N. Sewell have purchased new mowing machines.

Samuel Hays is getting along fine with W. W. Hays' house. It is now ready for the plasterers.

Geo. R. and Elias D. Brown passed through our town to attend the funeral of Mr. Browning last Friday.

Wheat harvest is here and our farmers are complaining about the high price of twine. Mark Hanna's monopolies have a corner on it.

Our people, one and all, regret the sudden death of Nathan Browning
but we join in with one accord and say another good man has gone on before to that better land.

Samuel Truelock's little son, Willie,
who has been attending the deaf and dumb school at Indianapolis since last September, returned home Wednesday of last week to spend vacation.

The Children's Day exercises at the M. E. church was a success. Nouse but the little folks spoke pieces. Hettie and Ida Enochs, Fay Hays and Laura Hamilton did exceedingly well.

How would it do to attach the prophesies of Hummer to the prophetic age in regard to the Hamilton township gravel roads. We predicted that the roads would be voted and that some of the fellows would get mad and act ugly; we also predicted that the roads would sell for 20 per cent. less than the estimate value, and they sold for 19 per cent. less. We now predict that when the roads are completed we will have the best township in the state. Together with what has been built, we will have about 70 miles of gravel roads in Hamilton township.

Noblesville, Ind., June 6.—Dr. W.
B. Graham, while driving in the country three miles west of this city at noon, saw a very bright meteor descend in the southeast. Notwithstanding the fact that the sun was shining brightly the meteor was easily discern-able, being exceedingly brilliant. Such an observance is very rare in the day time.

We seen the same thing on the same day and at the same hour and called the attention of some who were present but it was too late for them to see.
It had a tail about 4 feet long. It seems that the Dr. and I had our eyes turned heavenward at the same time.

Vallonia Sayings and Doings

Children's Day was observed at both churches.

J. H. Gosman is again with A. A.

Eli W. and Will Miller, of Ewing, visited here one day last week.

Prof. Thos. F. Sanders, of Seymour, was a business visitor here last week.

Dr. Pettigru and Tommy Bankers, of Columbus, were business visitors
here last week.

Whooping cough is raging throughout this vicinity and is proving to be very serious to small children.

Dr. Cummings and wife attended the 3rd annual reunion of the Faubion family at Heltonville June 4th.

Houston Lodge, No. 387, K. of P., decorated the graves of their deceased brethren last Saturday afternoon.

Elder Pavey will preach in the Christian Chapel at this place the first Lord's Day in July and the Saturday night before.

David A. Kochenour and family, of Brownstown, were driving over our beautiful gravel road a few days ago, sight seeing.

C. W. Phillips, our township assessor, informs us that he received $225 dog tax upon 216 dogs and reports 16 dogs not paid for.

Our worthy road supervisor has been grading the road running north from town, preparatory of graveling one mile of it. Our people are anxious to have good roads.

T. V. Pruitt killed a large rattlesnake the other day. It was 5 feet in length with 12 rattles and a button.
The skin is stuffed and on exhibition at Dr. Cummings' office.

Miss Ida Wilkerson, daughter of John Wilkerson and wife, died at her home near Elkinsville last Friday evening of pulmonary consumption, aged 20 years. She leaves a father,
mother, several brothers and one sister,
with a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. She was highly respected by all of her acquaintances.

Wesley, the nine months old son of
Wm. Garloch, died the 7th inst. and Elmer, aged ten, died the 9th inst.
His wife and three children are very poorly yet. This family has been sorely afflicted for some time; first having measles, then Elmer, one of the deceased, took pneumonia and all of the family, except the father, took whooping cough with this complication of disease. They have had the aid and sympathy of the community and it is hoped that the survivors will recover.

Everybody is cordially invited to help to celebrate the 4th of July at Houston this year. Grand preparations are being made and no expense will be spared in making it one of the grandest events of the year. The Hon.
Jas. H. Willard, of Bedford, and D. A.
Kochenour, of Brownstown, will possibly be present and deliver orations,
it being conducted under the auspices of Houston Lodge No. 387, K. of P. and will publicly install their officers for the ensuing term. Good music, both

Cortland Cullings

Mrs. Walter Findley Isack at the present writing.

Miss Bessie Williams went to Cortlandville last Friday to visit friends.

Edgel Williams went to Monticello,
Ind., to work on the mill this week.

John Uphouse purchased a fine piano
one day last week for his daughter, Miss Florence.

Bro. Jones will fill his regular appointment here next Saturday night,
Sunday and Sunday night.

Wheat harvest is almost here. Some of the farmers are preparing to commence cutting the last of this week.

The Knights held Memorial service here last Sunday afternoon. Quite a number of their Seymour brothers were present.

Next Sunday is the day for election of Sunday Schools officers. Let every one come out elect officers that will promote the cause.

Mrs. John Utterback was taken suddenly sick last Sunday evening with a malarial attack. She is a little better at the present writing.

Children's day exercises held here last Sunday night was a decided success. Bro. Gruber preached a very interesting sermon after the children finished their part.

Miss Hazel Pruden, who has been visiting relatives at Seymour for the past week, returned home last Thursday. She enjoyed her visit but came home with the whooping cough.

Spraytown Sifings.

Mrs. Daab is on the sick list.
Wm. Rupp is having a new roof sced on his barn.

The thermometer has been 90 degrees
in the shade several times.

There have been fine rains in all parts of the country, but here.

Several of the farmers from here are cutting clover in the bottoms near Cortland.

The wheat is begining to turn, and harvest is drawing near. The crops is very good.

Since the opening of the squirrel season the hunters' gun can be heard everywhere.

Prof. J. R. Kent, of Medora, was here last week in the interest of the Mutual Insurance Company.

Prof. H. W. White has commenced a new school on a different plan. He is having very good success.

Sparks from Sparksville.

Farmers are busy plowing corn.
W. F. Wood, of Leesville, spent Sunday here.

Rev. Jesse Nichols filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

John Reynolds and wife spent last Sunday in Washington county.

Dear Shirley:

Sorry it took me so long to answer your letter. I have really been busy trying to get our Genealogical Chapter started. We will have our first meeting 15 May 1986 at the Martins Ferry Public Library. I hope we get a lot accomplished.

Linda Goddard Stout of New Martinsville West Virginia provided me with a lot on the Goddard Family. Where does Rebecca Goddard fit in? Whose Daughter is she?

I'll do the best I can with what I have to show you where I fit in the Goddard's

Wm. Edwards and wife received a message Sunday that Thomas White, a brother of Mrs. Edwards, had taken poison and died Sunday morning.

Makes the Nation Gasp.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffers from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or pines. 25 cts at all druggists.

BROWNSTOWN TOWNSHIP

Mrs. John Ellis is still confined to her room.

Sunday night is Rev. Smith's appointment at this place.

Attendance at Sunday school, 46; collection, 48 cents.

Herman Tompison is teaching a class in vocal music at this place.

We are very sorry to hear of the serious illness of Richard McNiece.

Misses Leary and Geraldine Gregory are visiting their aunt at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Carrie Branaman was a business visitor at Seymour one day last week.

Price Robertson and family, of Honeytown, visited Samuel Kent and wife Sunday.

Everett Hopp and wife have moved back from Seymour. No place like Pleasant Grove.

James Wayman and wife, of Brownstown, spent Sunday with S. W. Robertson and family.

Some of our young folks took their dinners and had a pleasant time on the banks of White river Sunday.

Jas. Shortridge and wife, of Brownstown, and "Grandma" Fountain, of Medora, spent Sunday in the family of Jabe Heiman.

The woman of today who has good health, good temper, good sense, bright eyes and a lovely complexion, the result of correct living and good digestion, wins the admiration of the world. If your digestion is faulty Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct it. For sale by O. R. Emerson.

DRIFTWOOD TOWNSHIP

Miss Strausie Doty is staying at John Hess' at South Driftwood.

Henry Achelpohl, Jr., and wife spent Sunday with relatives at Wegan.

Planting corn and setting out tomatoes is the order of the day in this vicinity.

August Pollert sold a driving horse to Dr. Smith, of Brownstown, since our last report.

Howard Ranger, of Urbana, Ill., visited his aunt, Mrs. Anna Lockhart, from Tuesday until Saturday.

"Grandma" Pollert and grand-daughter, Miss Mabel Pollert, visited her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Eddinger, at Brownstown, Friday.

son of Andrew Woolery and to this union were born two daughters, viz: Mrs. Jennie White and Miss Freda Woolery. The son, two daughters, husband, three brothers and two sisters are left to mourn on account of her demise.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolery moved to Seymour a few months ago and were keeping a lodging house in that city. She had been afflicted with heart disease for several years but on last Wednesday evening she retired feeling as well as usual. About nine o'clock her husband was awakened by her unusual hard breathing. He could not arouse her and called others to her bedside but in a few moments she expired.

The remains were brought to her late home at this place and Thursday afternoon the funeral took place from the Christian church, of which she was a member. Eld. G. M. Shotts, of Seymour, officiated, after which interment took place in the Holmes family cemetery, just northwest of town.

Deep sympathy is expressed by the entire community for her husband and three children in their hour of sorrow.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell, a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A teaspoonful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo. "For I believe I would have consumption to-day, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle, or 50-cent or $1.00 size at All Druggists.

HAMILTON TOWNSHIP.

Keith Setser went to Columbus Saturday.

George Noe has his new house almost completed.

Several from here attended church at Houston Sunday night.

E. S. McMahon, of Ogdenville, spent Sunday with his brother at this place.

Miss Elsie McKinney, who has been visiting at Columbus, has returned home.

Miss Goldie Wilson, of Christiansburg, visited Miss Linnie Truex last Monday night.

Once more the Grim Messenger of death has made his visit to our community and has taken from our midst one of our oldest friends and neighbors. Jacob Garlock was born in Belmont county, Ohio, in 1830 and he died May 29, 1912. He united with the church of Christ about 62 years ago in Ohio and moved to this community several years ago. He married Miss Mary J. Brock in the year of 1851 and to this union were born twelve children—10 boys and 2 girls; one girl and five boys are still living. His wife preceded him to the grave February 13th, 1899. He then married Mrs. Annie Moore, who survives him. His aged wife and children have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

Several from here attended Children's Day exercise at Acme Sunday.

Lee and Francis Roberts were Sunday guests of Oscar and Lew White.

John Pilman and family, Otis McKain and family, of Shielstown, attended church at White's Chapel Sunday.

Notice is hereby given that has been appointed by the court of Jackson County, Indiana, for the sale of the real estate of Jackson County, Indiana, is proposed to be sold at public sale on May 11, 1912, at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Jackson County, Indiana.

DELAVER FROM LAST WEEK.

Ed Clark has bought property in lower Houston.

Almer Cummings attended the district K. of P. meeting at North Vernon last week.

The home and white bayer advertised to be here last Saturday, did not put in his appearance.

Houston Lodge, No. 227, K. of P., will hereafter hold its regular meetings on Friday night of each week.

Bert Hachman, of this county, and Miss Kate P. Helms, of this neighborhood, drove over to Brownstown, Tuesday last week; procured the necessary papers and were joined together as husband and wife. These young people are highly respected and of good families. We join with their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey over life's tempestuous sea.

Mrs. Jane (Brook) Garlock, wife of Jacob Garlock of this township, died Monday, February 13, 1899, after suffering several days with grip complicated with pneumonia. She with her husband and a large family of children emigrated from Ohio to this township in 1864. She was 60 years old her last birthday. She was a member of the Christian church and was loved and respected by all who knew her. Interment took place on Tuesday at the family burial ground on the home place. The sympathy of all this place and vicinity is extended to the bereaved family.

Walker's farm near Highland, Monday morning, where he will work for Mr.
Walker this coming season.

A host of Aunt Margaret Hamilton's friends gathered at her home and reminded her of the fact that she was 67 years old. A good time was had.

Last week we received the first copy of the Brownstown Telephone, which is a nice little paper. If the Telephone will keep straight on the line and advocate the principles of the party and not get caught in the web of management, there is no reason why it should not prosper, and it should urge the fusion party to open the books and we will join in and have the trustee's books of this township opened. If you will listen you will hear something drop before another year rolls around.

In all the multitude of our brother and sister correspondents, we only struck the sympathetic chord of but one and that was West Brownstown, who came with a receipt and words of consolation in our misfortune of having our ears frozen. The receipt came too late but is filed away for future use.
Our ear was frozen much worse than at first anticipated. Our first diagnosis was that the periphery was frozen, but found the tympanic also injured, which settled the middle eardrum and admitted a severe attack of high-altitude shamrock.

The Honeytown "Lore" met the Pleasant Valley Literary in joint debate at the Gallimore school house last Saturday night. The question was
"Resolved, That the Spanish American war was an injury to the United States." They report that they were treated with all respect; and as a result they have returned the following challenges: "Five members of the Honey-town 'Lore' will meet any five members of the Pleasant Valley society in debate upon the same question at Honeytown Friday night, March 3rd.
Although the question has been argued and decided upon, it is not settled, as no question is ever settled until it is settled right.

Guy Copeland and wife, of Holman, visited their parents here last week.

Most of the township schools have closed and the rest will close this week.

Several from here attended teachers' examination at Brownstown, Saturday.

Elder Brock has been retained by the congregation at White's church for another year.

The schools at this place will close Friday. There will be exercises in Des. White's room only.

Miss Ivy Payne, daughter of J. M.
Payne, came here Sunday and will make this her future home.

If the weather permits, several from here will attend the musical at the court house Thursday night.

Chas. Gregory will soon move on the farm of Jasper Miller, and Sherman Miller, who is living there at present, will move on Sam Miller's farm.

Miss Ella Craft and Mrs. Anna Waskom have rented the Myers' room, recently vacated by Ruby Hunsacker, and will conduct a millinery and dress making shop there.

The following pupils passed the examination for graduation: Nellie Was-

YOH0, FRANCIS L. "NORA" - A 101-year-old Proctor, WV resident, died recently. She was a member of the Fredonia Christian Church at Rine's Ridge in Marshall Co, WV. A resident of RD 2, Proctor, she was born 31 Dec 1886, on Rine's Ridge, a daughter of the late Jehu and Hannah Ramsey Yoho. She was preceded in death by her husband, Blair; a daughter, Grace Minor Taylor; three sisters and four brothers. Surviving are a son, Sullivan, with whom she resided; several nieces and nephews. (Died 1987)

YOH0, HARRISON - On 4 Apr 1895, at the home of his son Henry, the goodly spirit of Brother Harrison Yoho was released from this world for its bright home in heaven, having reached the 81st year of his age. He was born and raised in Wetzel County, WV and died near the place of his birth. His wife, aged 71 years, preceded him in death by five months. Their family consisted of five children, three sons and two daughters, one daughter having passed away earlier. Brother Yoho had been a preacher of the Gospel of Christ for over fifty years and was widely known and tenderly loved by his brethren. He was the son of George Yoho and Jane Hartley and was born 16 Nov 1816 on Paugh Ridge, in Proctor District, Wetzel Co, WV. He was one of six children, including Barbara; Sally; Richard; Henry; and Betty. His grandfather was Henry Yoho who came to this area during the Revolutionary War in which he served as a Private, a spy and a scout. He was also an Indian fighter with the Lewis brothers in this area. Harrison preached at most of the Christian Churches of the county and also in Marshall County. He had a farm near Halls Mills on what is now Rt. 7 in the vicinity of Wileyville, WV. On 22 Mar 1838, he and Martha Goddard were married in Wetzel County. She was born about 1820 and was the daughter of Henry Kellum Goddard and Dorcas Long. Martha died 10 Nov 1894.

YOH0, HENRY - Died at his home on Ryan's Ridge 17 Mar 1915. Mr. Yoho was 83 years old 23 Nov 1914 and is survived by three sons, S.T. Yoho, T.A. Yoho, and W.W. Yoho, all of Franklin District, Marshall Co, WV, and one daughter, Mrs. Austin Franklin of Woodland, WV. Mrs. Yoho has been dead for several years and Mr. Yoho lived at the old home place with his grandson, Tom Yoho. Interment at the Yoho Cemetery. Mr. Yoho was one of the oldest and best known citizens in the southern part of the county. (Moundsville, WV "Echo")

YOH0, ICIE "HAZEL" - Age 77, of Burch Ridge, Proctor, WV, died 6 Jul 1982 in New Martinsville, WV. She was born 5 Jan 1904 in Proctor, the daughter of George and Louella Butler Cozart. She was a member of the Antioch Christian Church and a former employee of the Marshall County Schools. She was preceded in death by her husband, William J. "Jake" Yoho in 1980 and a son, William J.. Surviving are a brother, Lawrence Cozart of Rine's Ridge and several nieces and nephews. Burial was in Greenlawn Memorial Park, New Martinsville, WV. (1904-1982)

Not sure if I sent these so before I delete them here you are:

Thanks to the Hunt list and a very gracious helper, Jan, I now have the Detroit MI obituary I needed. THANK YOU! I'm posting it here to share and will add a couple of others on this same family of Hunts.

Perry's obit appeared in the Free Press on 6/20/33 Detroit MI and reads as follows:

Perry M. Hunt

A resident of Detroit for 15 years, Perry M. Hunt, 68 years old, died Sunday of a heart attack. Mr. Hunt, who was born in Oakland, Ill., resided at 4865

Algonquin Ave. He is survived by his widow, Cora Madern Hunt. Funeral services will be held at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday at Bourgeois Chapel, 8339 Mack Ave., with burial in Everett, Mich.

Hope this helps.

The Oakland Messenger 12/14/1911

MRS. WILLIAM MONTGOMERY

Mary Jane Hill, daughter of Caleb and Joanna Hill, was born in Virginia, August 13, 1839. She died at her home near Oakland, IL, Dec. 9, 1911, aged 72 years, 3 months, 26 days. On May 26, 1860, she was united in marriage to Alexander Hunt. To this union seven children were born. Her husband was taken July 3, 1872. Later she was married to William Montgomery. To this union two children were born.

32160

She was converted several years ago, and joined the Christian church. She leaves her husband, two children, five sisters, two brothers, several grand children, one great grand child, and a host of friends to mourn her death. She was a kind mother, and a good neighbor. She always had a good work for everyone. She has gone to the world beyond to meet her loved ones gone before.

DOUBLE FUNERAL

Sometimes, troubles double up on people, the visitations coming very fast. Why we are, at times, made to feel that God frowns upon us, we do not know. His purposes often thwart our best laid plans, and our fondest hopes fail. The spectacle of a double funeral, two caskets, two funeral cars, two funeral sermons in one, two bodies placed side by side in one common grave, one a mother, the other a son, both mature in years, two families made to mourn, and countless numbers of relatives and friends stand almost aghast at such an unusual occurrence. But so long as humanity exists we must expect the unusual, the out of the ordinary to come upon us. We live to be bereaved. It is our common lot, but double bereavements seldom come to mortals, save in great catastrophes, such as floods, wrecks or mine horrors.

On Nov. 24, James Hunt passed away, and his body was laid to rest in Fairview cemetery. On Friday evening, December 8, Elmer E. Hunt, a brother of James Hunt passed away at his home, south of this city, his fatal illness coming upon him, the day his brother was buried. On Saturday morning, Dec. 9, not many hours after Elmer died, his mother, also the mother of James, Mrs. William Montgomery, died at her home, southwest of this city. The two bodies were buried side by side in a common grave, at Fairview cemetery, last Sunday morning, the funeral services being conducted at the church, nearby, Elder Frank Reed of Hindsboro, officiating. He preached a most eloquent and affectionate sermon, having, just a few days before officiated at the funeral of James Hunt. A large and sympathetic concourse of friends and relatives was present to render their last tributes of love and respect to the departed ones.

DOUBLE FUNERAL

Sometimes, bodies double up on people, the visitors coming very fast. Why we are, at times, made to feel that God flows upon us, we do not know. His purposes often throw our best laid plans, and our fondest hopes fall. The spectacle of a double funeral, two caskets, two funeral cars, two funeral sermons in one, two bodies placed side by side in one common grave, one a mother, the other a son, both mature in years, two families made to mourn, and countless numbers of relatives and friends stand almost aghast at such an unusual occurrence. But so long as humanity exists we must expect the unusual, the out of the ordinary to come upon us. We live to be bereaved. It is our common lot, but double bereavements seldom come to mortals, save in great catastrophes, such as floods, wrecks or mine horrors.

JAMES HUNT DEAD.

Much surprise was caused, Wednesday, when the word went forth that "Jim" Hunt had died at his home southeast of the city. Mr. Hunt had been ill, seriously, for but 21 days, tho' we are informed that he had suffered more or less from a stomach trouble for about 15 years. The funeral was held at Fairview Church, Friday, at 11 o'clock, and the remains were laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery nearby.

James William Hunt was a son of Alexander and Mary Jane Hunt. He was born in East Oakland, Aug. 1, 1861, and he died at his home in the same township Nov. 29, 1911, aged 53 years, 3 months and 28 days.

On Dec. 2, 1886, Mr. Hunt was united in marriage to Miss Asenith L. Brown and to this union eleven children were born, and these with the exception of one which died in infancy were at his bedside when the Death Messenger came.

Mr. Hunt said a short time before his death, talking to his family, that he believed in God and his word and later that he knew Jesus would come to take him home. Besides his wife and children he leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn.

Mr. Hunt was a good man, conscientious and honest, and dependable. The MESSENGER extends sincere sympathy to all.

giving the store to his eldest son, JJ held pastorates in Kansas elsewhere in Illinois. Returning to his home on North Walnut in Oakland he did evangelistic work in churches around the area. He died May 19, 1926 survived by his wife, Lucy.

But to answer the second question as to why he finally settled in Oakland . . . must be because the people here have always been so friendly.

CLARENCE WADE HUDSON AND EDITH JANETTE JOHNS

Clarence Hudson was born to Jacob Jackson Porter Hudson and Lucy Catherine Whittemore Stockwell, September 26, 1871, in Jamestown, Indiana. He was one of eight children (see biography on Jacob Hutson for earlier details) and came to Oakland as a young man.

Edith and Clarence Hudson, May, 1942

He met a recent widow, Edith Janette Johns Black, and decided to make her his wife. Who knew on that April day in 1914, when "Wado" brought his new bride home from their wedding in Charleston, what a widespread family they were beginning? Edith brought her three daughters, from her former marriage, with her when she set up housekeeping on North Walnut Street-Helen, Lois and Grace. There followed shortly: Margaret, James, Dorothy and Clarence Dale (twins), Catharine, Frances Jean, Betty and Virginia (twins), and Mary Joan. Three of them died in childhood.

"Wado" worked at the family's general store where his dry humor delighted many of his customers. Edith, while raising her bunch of livewires, managed to be active in the community, as well. Both were quite active in the Christian Church where Edith taught a Sunday School class.

Although there was never an abundance of money in their home, Edith always knew of someone worse off than they. She was either making clothes for that family or taking meals to another one. There might not have been money enough but there was plenty of love to go around, twice.

When "Wado" died, June 23, 1953, in the same house in which he'd lived all his married life, he left many to mourn him. And it's strange to me, for a man who would never get on an airplane, he now has grandchildren as far away as Yemen and Australia, and as close as Charleston.

HUFFMAN

Earl E. Huffman, born June, 1934, and Gloria Sue Smith, born February, 1937, each in Clinton, Indiana, were married June 2, 1958. They moved to Oakland from Indiana in October, 1961. They are the parents of two sons, Tim, born April, 1964 and Mark, born January, 1969.

The Huffmans are members of the Oakland Christian Church and Earl is a member of the Hindsboro Masonic Lodge.

Since moving to Oakland, Earl has been employed at the local grain elevator.

In 1976, the Huffmans opened the Iron Kettle Restaurant and have owned and operated it since that time.

ALEXANDER HUNT FAMILY

James Hunt, born in London, England, came to the United States in 1774. He was born in 1755 and died in 1847. He was a Revolutionary soldier, who was captured and later released. In 1799, he left this area. In 1820, he was widower and lived in Dayton, Ohio area. Later he was in Rush County, Indiana and died in 1847 and is buried there.

He had several children. One is James D. Hunt, born in Maryland in 1793 and died in Coles County, Illinois in 1856. He married Nancy Jones, born in Virginia in 1800 and died in 1865, both are buried in Fairview Cemetery.

They were the parents of seven children. One was Alexander, who died in 1872. He was married to Mary Jane Hill in 1859. She was born in 1839 and died in 1911, a daughter of Caleb and Joanna Goddard Hill.

They had 6 children, one of whom is Sallie Joanna, born 1868 and died in 1892, 24 years old. She married Frederick J. Ketcham. Their children were Gladys Leatha and Clarence. They were reared by Sallie's sister Nancy and John Friddle.

Gladys, born 1889 and died 1967, married Lawrence Campbell, born 1886 and died 1968. Their two sons are Thurman M. Campbell and the late Jesse Clarence Campbell. Their lives are listed elsewhere in the book.

There are many Hunt descendants in this area.

WILLIAM HUNT FAMILY

James Hunt of London arrived in Charles County, Maryland in 1774. He was the father of James D. Hunt (1793-1856), born in Maryland, May 5. James D. married Nancy Jones (1800-1865), a daughter of George and Eva Ann Jones, in Clark County, Ohio, November 8, 1821. They moved to a farm in East Oakland Township, in the early 1800's, 6 miles southeast of Oakland, in the northwest corner of Section 9 on the hill. This land is now owned by Fern Hunt Hawkins, daughter of Laurence Hunt, great-granddaughter of James D. Hunt. James D. and Nancy had 7 children: William, Sarah, George, Mariah, Eva Ann, Alexander and Joseph.

CHARLES EARLY INJURED.

Barton, Dec. 1.—Charles Early, formerly residing near here, was victim of a very painful accident about 10 o'clock this morning when his horse became frightened causing the wagon to run over his body. It will be several days before he will be able to resume his duties again.

Early was in the act of unhitching his horses when one of the horses became frightened and started to run. Early made an attempt to hold the animal, but was run over under the wheels of the wagon. The heavy vehicle passed over his entire body and it was at that time he was seriously injured.

Early was taken into the house, where an examination was made. It was found that no bones were broken. His body was severely bruised in places, however, and it will be some time before he recovers from the soreness. The horse succeeded in getting away, but little damage was done.—Isaac Beacon.

John Slater of Isabel was here today.

Miss Maud Shaffer came over from Hindsboro, Wednesday.

Elmer Henn came down from Barton, Thursday evening.

Miss Wallace spent her Thanksgiving at Hindsboro visiting her sisters.

Mrs. M. C. Blevins went to Barton to visit relatives, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirkpatrick visited relatives at Barton, Thursday evening.

This is a detailed historical map of the town of New Bedford, Massachusetts, showing property lots, owner names, and dates. The map is divided into numbered sections (1-18) and includes a legend for lot numbers and owner names. The map is oriented with North at the top.

Legend:

- Lot numbers (1-18)
- Owner names (e.g., James A. McGee, William H. McGee, etc.)
- Dates (e.g., 1-1-1857, 1-1-1858, etc.)

The map shows the layout of the town, including streets, buildings, and the location of the harbor. The map is a valuable resource for researchers and historians interested in the history of New Bedford.

DOUBLE FUNERAL

Sometimes, troubles double up on people, the visitations coming very fast. Why we are, at times, made to feel that God frowns upon us, we do not know. God moves in a mysterious way, that we do know. His purposes often thwart our best laid plans, and our fondest hopes fail. The spectacle of a double funeral, two caskets, two funeral cars, two funeral sermons in one, two bodies placed side by side in one common grave, one a mother, the other a son, both mature in years, two families made to mourn, and countless numbers of relatives and friends stand almost aghast at such an unusual occurrence. But so long as humanity exists we must expect the unusual, the out of the ordinary to come in upon us. We live to be bereaved. It is our common lot, but double bereavements seldom come to mortals, save in great catastrophes, such as floods, wrecks or mine horrors.

On Nov. 24, James Hunt passed away, and his body was laid to rest in Fairview cemetery. On Friday evening, December 8, Elmer E. Hunt, a brother of James Hunt passed away at his home, south of this city, his fatal illness coming upon him, the day his brother was buried. On Saturday morning, Dec. 9, not many hours after Elmer died, his mother, also the mother of James, Mrs. William Montgomery, died at her home, southwest of this city. The two bodies were buried side by side in a common grave, at Fairview cemetery, last Sunday morning, the funeral services being conducted at the church, nearby, Elder Frank Reed of Hindsboro, officiating. He preached a most eloquent and affectionate sermon, having, just a few days before officiated at the funeral of James Hunt. A large and sympathetic concourse of friends and relatives was present to render their last tributes of love and respect to the departed ones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones and family entertained to dinner, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hollowell and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hollowell and family. Uncle Jerry Coffey is some better at this writing. Messrs. Ed. McQueen and Park Johnson delivered corn to Hindsboro, Monday. Mrs. Henry Myers and children spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John A. Myers and family. Mr. John Mullis was a business caller to Oakland, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hollowell and daughter, Eva were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henry, Saturday night and Sunday. Messrs. John Myers and Seph Daniels done some carpenter work for Dr. Myers of Oakland, Tuesday. Mrs. Artie Jones is quite poorly at this writing. Rome Belgtel and mother are transacting business at Oolitic, Ind., this week. James Payne spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks. Miss Leah Myers is suffering with tonsillitis. Quite a number of our young people attended to box supper given by Charles Zeize at Brick school house, Friday night. A good program was rendered. Mt. Carmel school acknowledged a pleasant call from Supt. E. E. Gere Friday morning. Scott Myers spent Sunday with his Uncle John A. Myers and family, Sunday. Mrs. Joe McQueen called on Mrs. Ed. McQueen, Monday evening. W. W. Daniels was a business caller to Hindsboro, Monday. Jasper McQueen who has been confined to his room for several weeks with grippe is able to be out again. On Wednesday of last week (Dec. 6) at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hollowell a birthday dinner was given in honor of the former's father, Eli Hollowell who celebrated his 92nd birthday with his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Those in attendance were:

D. W. Hollowell and daughter, Mrs. May Dillinger

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hollowell and baby, Marie
Mrs. Everett Henry and Miss Flo Hollowell
Also Uncle Jerry Coffey, father of Mrs. B. F. Hollowell who resides in the Hollowell home. In the afternoon, Mr. Ira Kinrade arrived with his camera and took the pictures of the four generations. Those of the generations were: Eli Hollowell, B. F. Hollowell, Earl Hollowell and Eva Marie the little daughter of Earl.

Those of the Coffey generation were: Uncle Jerry Coffey, Mrs. B. F. Hollowell and son, Earl Hollowell with Eva Marie the only great grand daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hollowell were

Hayden Elevator Purchased By Three Ranchers

The Hayden Grain Co., operators of an elevator and pellet mill at Hayden, has been purchased by Marvin Barnes, Summer Hockett and Gil Evans, three of the largest wheat growers in northwest Colorado. The company has been owned by Charles and Anna Deaver of Sidney, Neb., and has been managed by Les Grandbouche since 1941. The purchase price is reported to be approximately $150,000. The elevator handles a large portion of the grain crop raised in Routt and Moffat counties and is one of the large business enterprises in this part of the state.

Funeral Services For Mrs. McCall Will Be Friday 1957

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice
 May McCall will be held at 2 p. m.
 Friday at the Root mortuary. Jean Wixon of Hayden, will give the Christian Science reading. Burial will be in the local cemetery.

Mrs. McCall died Tuesday. She was born in Steamboat Springs, Feb.
 14, 1917, and had resided here all of her life.

She is survived by her husband,
 Robert I. McCall; a son, Edward
 D. Hunt; a daughter, Joy Lou Hunt;
 her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kline, and two brothers, Ed Kline Jr. and Calvin Kline, both of Steamboat.

Pioneer General St

The Hayden Mercantile Co. at Hayden, one of the pioneer stores of northwest Colorado,
 has been sold to Mr. and Mrs.
 Lucien TeBeckherst.

The transaction, one of the largest business deals in this part of the state in recent years, was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Erwin, who have been the owners since 1943.

Mr. Erwin has been connected with the store for 30 years and for much of the time was manager before he became the owner.

Paul Hunt services here July 28 - 1971

Paul Hunt, resident of Routt County for the past 40 years, passed away at the Routt County Memorial Hospital on July 24, 1971 following a lengthy illness. He was 60 years old at the time of his death.

Services conducted by the Rev. Richard L. Ogden were held at the Root Mortuary Chapel at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 28, 1971. Interment was in the Steamboat cemetery.

The Rev. Harvey Hallada, accompanied by Maxine Ohman on the organ, sang "Peace in the Valley" and "Beyond the Sunset."

Pallbearers were Howard Nitchell, Al Ramsey, Delano Scott, Bud Kline, Raymond Slevierding and F.H. Devault.

Born on January 22, 1911 in Oakland, Illinois, Paul came to Routt County in 1931. He was a member of the United Methodist Church and the Masonic Lodge.

He was a well-known road contractor in the county for many years and for the past quarter century has owned and operated the McCoy Aggregate. Following his purchase of the Hotel Harbor about 10 years ago, he undertook a complete renovation of the motel-hotel facility. It was only this spring, when ill health forced his retirement, that the hotel was sold.

His 160 acre ranch in the Fly Gulch area has been used as a hobby. Several times he has imported quail for the property.

An avid sportsman, he has for years hunted and fished in Colorado and surrounding states. For the past decade he has owned several small yachts and several years ago, spanned the length of the Mississippi River on one of his boats. His love of the water had taken him on an annual rafting trip down the Yampa and Green Rivers.

Surviving him are his wife, Angie Camilletti, whom he married in Vernal, Utah on June 9, 1951. Also surviving him are two sons, Duane Hunt of Tacoma, Wash., and Dallas Hunt of Steamboat Springs; two daughters, Joy Rivers of Grand Junction, Colo. and Janice Hunt of Steamboat Springs; one brother, Albert Hunt of Mattoon, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Fay Gilliam and Mrs. Lela Knight, both of Oakland, Ill. and Mrs. Unice Garwood of Perryville, Ill.; and 6 grandchildren.

Dallas Hunt was adopted at age 30.

Info on Emery & Doris Garlock and descendants is from my own personal research and knowledge.

I will send info on the other 4 sons of John & Sarah Garloch and the other 7 children of Emery and Doris Garlock when I get it all entered in.

I got Ray Burton's gedcom transferred and it looks like he and I have the common ancestor of Johannes YOHO. He is descended from his son, Peter YOHO and I am descended from his son, Henry YOHO. You are descended from Henry also, aren't you? Do you have any of the stats on Johannes, his son

Henry, etc? Do you have an email address for Ray Burton? I'd like to thank him for his work. I was trying to think of how I could split the file so you could use it, but I don't know how I'd do that.

I have made a list of the Goddard/Yoho marriages. If you would like the families or any other info just let me know.
Ray Burton

O, Sarah

Myrna,

I'm glad to hear from you. Does the fact that you are gathering the clan mean the Goddard's are from Scotland? I have very little info on the family. I just started on the YOHO line and was planning to move on to the GODDARD line next. You are a windfall!! I'll be glad to share what I have.

Some of the info I have came from R. Henthorn's website on the YOHO line. He has a 4th generation descendants chart (from 1712) on his site but states that the documentation is not given so I assume he has some. I am contacting him today to see if he can send me a gedcom file. I'll share with you when I get something.

The web pages include some vital stats on:

Wm. Robert GODDARD (sp. Sarah YOHO), son of Joshua GODDARD & Margaret EFAW

Matha GODDARD (sp. Rev. Harrison YOHO), dau. of Henry Kellum GODDARD & Dorcas LONG

John William GODDARD (sp. Elizabeth YOHO), son of Joshua GODDARD & Margaret EFAW

Reese GODDARD (sp. Mary Ann YOHO), son of Joshua GODDARD & Margaret EFAW

Alva GODDARD (Margaret Jane YOHO), son William Robert GODDARD & Sarah YOHO

Elizabeth Jane GODDARD (sp. George Washington YOHO, dau of William Robert GODDARD & Sarah YOHO

Jared Nelson GODDARD (sp. Martha Patty GARNER), son of Henry Kellum GODDARD & Dorcas LONG

The site is at <http://members.aol.com/rhenthorn1/index.html> if you want to get the stats.

Tim Yoho also has a website and lists Martha Matilda as #656 in his index but he doesn't have a descendants chart on line. I'm contacting him today also for more info.

As for the descendants of Wesley GARLOCH and Martha Mathilda YOHO --

I got a print out of a descendants chart from a GARLOCH researcher in Nebraska. She also got some of her information from Ray West. She had Martha Matilda YOHO as the daughter of Rev. Harrison YOHO and Martha GODDARD. Again there was no documentation so I am also writing to her to see if she will send me a gedcom file.

I tried to get some info from Indianapolis, IN but so far the researcher (Linda Zapp) only found:

License John M. Garloch and Sarah Channess

She also found: the death announcement and the obituary (Sat, 1 Nov 1913; "The Indianapolis News", Mon. Nov. 3, 1913; pg. 12; col. 6) for Sarah CHAMNESS GARLOCH; and the deed to her grave lot (Mt. Jackson Cemetery, Indianapolis, IN). No birth announcements for the five boys. Will let you know how that works out.

I am in the process of entering the data on the descendants of Wesley and Martha Matilda Garloch. I have been working on my mother's line and this is my dad's side of the family. I am being inundated here all of a sudden and am working as fast as I can. I hope to have this all entered in to send to my family for Christmas. I don't have any of Harrison and Martha's children, and I have 7 children for Wesley and Martha Matilda. I will send John Mack's 5 sons and most of his descendants when I get the info entered. Emery had 8 children and 33 grandchildren. Will send you a gedcom file as soon as I get it done.

I notice you have John Mack's death date as 7/30/1962. It is 6/20/1962. I have the Memorial Record from the funeral and also the obituary from the "Salem News" - June 20, 1962 reading:

"John M. Garlock

John Mack Garlock, 85, of 1582 Southeast Blvd., died of complications at 2 a.m. today in the Hutton Albright Rest Home following an illness of two years. Born at Neffs, O., May 10, 1877, he was the son of Wesley and Martha Yoho Garlock and was a member of the First Christian Church, Odd Fellows Lodge Rebekah Lodge and Order of Redmen. He resided in Salem for 44 years and was a retired watchman at the Eljer plant. His wife, Sarah Ellen, died in 1913. He is survived by five sons, Melvin of Salem; Emery of Wichita, Kan; Emmett of Sebring; Sherman of Alliance, and Ivan of Hanoverton; 17 grandchildren and 29 great-children. Services will be Friday at 3:30 p.m. in the Stark Memorial with Rev. Harold Deitch officiating. Burial will be in Mount Jackson Cemetery in Indianapolis. Friends may call at the Memorial Thursday evening."

The Memorial Record gives nothing additional but confirms the obituary info.

NOTE: While John Mack retained the spelling of Garloch, 4 of his sons changed it to Garlock after WWI. The oldest of his sons (Melvin) retained the spelling of Garloch. John Mack was my grandfather and he gave me the names, birth and death dates for himself and up to Wesley and Martha Matilda.

NOTE: The family never knew about the second marriage to Emma Gahhart. My mother just told me about it around 10 years ago. It apparently didn't last long. John got sick and returned to Belmont County, OH with the boys to get help raising them from his family.

Hope some of this is new and helpful to you. I'd love to hear more from you. Could you send me a gedcom file on whatever your beginning is down to Martha GODDARD? I'm pretty sure bellatlantic.net will handle a gedcom. Janice

INSTRUCTIONS

All executors, administrators, guardians, conservators (and testamentary trustees whose trusts are under the jurisdiction of said Court) are required to exhibit the accounts of their administration for settlement each six months until the estate is finally closed. Each report shall set forth the amount of money received during the period covered, the sources from which received, the several amounts paid out, to whom paid, and date of payment, and be accompanied by proper vouchers (receipts). FIDUCIARY AND ATTORNEY FEES SHOULD BE LISTED UNDER "ITEMS PAID OUT", JUST AS OTHER DISBURSEMENTS. If any heirs or legatees of an intestate or testator are unknown, or if known and there is no person qualified to receive the distributive shares or legacies of such heirs or legatees, the administrator or executor shall at the time of filing the report serve the Attorney General with a copy in person or by registered mail.

Items paid out must be listed in the report in the order of date of disbursement and vouchers (receipts) for every such item, arranged vertically in the order the items appear in the report, shall be attached to the report, on separate sheet or sheets of paper, of the same size as the report, commencing one and one-half inches from the top, overlapping each other as much as possible, but not extending beyond the bottom of the separate sheet; each voucher shall be securely glued (not stapled) along its upper edge to the separate sheet, the left edges of the vouchers even with the left edge of the separate sheet, with any surplus folded in from the right; and the separate sheet or sheets shall be filed with the report, BUT SHALL NOT BE GLUED OR STAPLED TO THE REPORT.

who served their country in various wars.

In the year of 1828, the Circuit Rider, Reverend William C. Smith, met at the home of Asa Shepherd with a group who were interested in forming a Methodist Church. Early records state that these people continued to work together under the leadership of Reverend Smith until a "Class" for religious study was organized. Families attending these meetings were the Crawfords, Sutherlins, Nelsons, and the Brackneys. Around 1840 this group was joined by the Rambos, Lloyds, Butchers, and Perkins who worked together to build a log church, one mile west of Morton in the northeast corner of the cemetery. Both the church and the cemetery were given the name of Union Chapel. There was a minister to hold regular worship services until 1858, when a frame building was erected to better serve the growing congregation. In 1896, under the leadership of Reverend U. G. Leazenby, the present brick church was built. There had been a parsonage at Morton for some time. During the 1940's the church began sharing a pastorate with the church at Russellville, and later with Bainbridge, so the Morton parsonage was sold. In 1957, the Men's Club of the church sponsored a project of remodeling and redecorating. Later, when a new kitchen, dinning room, rest rooms and Sunday School rooms were needed the Men's Club again responded with a building program. This modern addition to the church was dedicated on October 2, 1963. The Women's Organization shared the responsibility of these accomplishments. A membership of one hundred thirty members carries on the work of Union Chapel Church. The minister, Reverend Leland Wade, lives at Bainbridge.

The well kept cemetery nearby is the resting place of many who have been members of the church. The graves of twenty-six men, who served their country in the various wars, are located in Union Chapel Cemetery.

In 1862 a group of people living east of Clinton Falls organized a German Baptist, or Dunkard, Church. A frame building, plain but substantial, was erected on land that had been a part of the Sigler farm. Devout members from miles around came to join in the worship services. After a time the membership decreased so that a church could no longer be supported. On December 7, 1923, Trustees Wilford Harshbarger, John Himes, and George Harris signed rights for a new organization to take over. The new trustees were Charles Goddard, George Frank, and Alonzo Heady. For several years this church was directed by the Methodist Conference. An all day meeting was held in the summer of 1962 cele-

Equipment for Fistula Connection

1. Sterile 4X3 with IO Prep or Betadine.
2. 3-20cc syringes
3. 1-20 ga. needle
4. 2-15 ga fistula needles
5. 1-26 ga needle
6. 3-30cc vials of sodium chloride for injection.
7. 1-vial heparin
8. Tape
9. 2-occluding forceps
10. 4-3 cc syringes
11. 1-vial 1% Zylocaine or L-Caine.

READ ALL BOTTLE LABELS CAREFULLY

1. PREPARATION OF SKIN AND EQUIPMENT

- a) Make up three bottles of heparinized saline by injecting 10 mg (1cc or 1,000 u) heparin into a 30 cc vial of sodium chloride for injection. Label with tape so you know that it has heparin added. Any heparinized saline not used may be saved for the next dialysis. It is wise to always have an extra bottle available.
- b) Fill three 20 cc syringes with 15 cc of heparinized saline. Attach a butterfly fistula needle to two of the syringes. The third syringe is extra and is to be used only if problems occur with the needles. Fill the fistula needles with heparinized saline until there are no air bubbles.
- c) Draw up 1 to 1 1/2 cc of L-Caine in a 3 cc syringe. Change from a 20 ga. needle to a 26 ga. needle.
- d) Draw up 2 1/2 cc of heparin in each of the three 3cc syringes.
- e) Tear four short pieces of tape and split one medium piece in half.
- f) Have two clamps, a tourniquet, and several alcohol swabs available.
- g) Pour Betadine on one package of 4X3's to cleanse arm.

INSERTION OF NEEDLES - BE SURE MACHINE IS READY

I To Insert Xylocaine:

- a) Shave arm and clean well with IO Prep or Betadine to decrease chances of infection. Arm should be scrubbed for 3 minutes.
- b) Dry excess betadine off of arm with sterile 3X4.
- c) Decide where the needles will go.
- d) Apply tourniquet.

THE WESTMORELAND RECORDER 3 April 1924

Elsia (sic Eliza) Ann Anderson was born in Putnam county Indiana, July 7, 1845 and died March 28, 1924, aged 78 years, 8 months and 21 days.

On August 3, 1865 she was united in marriage to Reason Dole Goddard. To this union were born seven children, all of whom are living except Cora Alice, who died in infancy. These living are Mary Ellen Jenkins of Belvue; Hariet Jane Pressler of Westmoreland; John Goddard of Tribby, Oklahoma; Rowin R. Goddard, James D. Goddard and Marguerite L. Hamilton of Louisville.

The family lived in Indiana until the year of 1883, when they moved to Pottawatomie county, Kansas where they have lived ever since. She leaves to mourn her death besides the above named children, her husband, who is bedfast; one sister, Mrs. Hariet Jones, of Excelsior Springs, Missouri; one half sister, Mrs. Gene Campbell, of Topeka. She is also survived by twelve grandchildren, besides a host of relatives and friends.

Her death was caused by accidently falling and breaking her hip, after which she contracted pneumonia. She has been a member of the Baptist church at Onaga since 1899, and has been a constant believer and a patient sufferer. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Lousville, conducted by Rev. Lee Darnell of Westmoreland. Interment was made in the Louisville cemetery.

THE WESTMORELAND RECORDER 1 May 1924

Reason Dole Goddard was born in Whetzel (sic) county, Virginia, September 30, 1842 and died April 23, 1924, aged 81 years, 6 months and 23 days. At the age of 19 he volunteered his services to his country as a soldier and served 3 years in Company B, 43rd Regiment of Indiana.

On August 3, 1865 he was united in marriage to Eliza Ann Anderson. To this union were born seven children, all of whom are living except Cora Alice, who died in infancy; Mary E. Jenkins of Belvue; Harriet J. Pressler of Westmoreland; John H. Goddard of Tribbey, Oklahoma; Rowin R. Goddard, James D. Goddard and Marguerite L. Hamilton of Louisville.

The family lived in Indiana until the year of 1883, when they moved to Pottawatomie county, Kansas, where they have lived ever since. He has been a member of the Baptist church in Onaga since 1899. He leaves to mourn his death besides the above named children, two brothers, J. M. Goddard of Louisville; Grant Goddard of Florida; and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Bishop, Mrs. Sarah Beemis, and Mrs. Martha Bishop of Indiana; fifteen grandchildren, and twelve great grandchildren, besides a host of other relatives and friends. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church in Louisville, conducted by Rev. Lee Darnell of Westmoreland. Interment was made in the Louisville cemetery.

married Aunt Jo, and one of them was Ben.

Mr. Gebhart was married to one of Uncle John's daughters.
She is not in the picture. Never very well. I am sure two of their daughters are in the front, but I don't know just which ones. Don't know the others either.

II To Insert Fistula Needle

- a) Apply tourniquet.
- b) Partner should put fingers on either side of vein to stabilize vessels and act as guide for threading the needle into the vein.
- c) Insert butterfly needle under the skin with bevel up. Direct needle tip down at a 45° angle until it enters the vessel. You should feel a "pop" as the needle enters the vessel. You should be able to pull the blood into the syringe.
- d) Hold on to plunger so that blood does not fill up the syringe.
- e) When you feel a "pop" and obtain a blood flow, level the needle and thread it into the vessel.
- f) Pull back on plunger to check flow.
- g) If blood flow is good, remove tourniquet, flush the needle with heparinized saline.
- h) Clamp needle.
- i) Tape the needle with two short pieces of tape and one cross-piece.
- j) Usually you will get a better flow if you turn the flaps of the needle to one side.
- k) Check flow after the needle has been taped by unclamping the needle and pulling back on the plunger.
- l) If flow is good, flush the needle with heparinized saline and reclamp. If flow is not good, untape the needle and reposition it until good flow is obtained.
- m) Insert second needle in the same manner.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

1. The arterial needles are inserted toward the flow of the fistula.
2. The venous needle is inserted away from the flow.
3. NEVER insert the arterial needle closer than two fingers widths from the incision line. You may damage the anastomosis, causing bleeding and/or eventual clotting of the fistula.
4. NEVER infuse heparinized saline to check if needle is in the vein.
5. NEVER infuse heparinized saline while tourniquet is in place.
6. Insert the needles slowly to avoid going too deep.
7. Tape the needles securely to prevent them from slipping out of the vessels.
8. Move insertion sites up and down the arm. Using the same areas all the time can cause aneurysms and decrease the life of the fistula.
9. Shave arm and clean well with Betadine each dialysis to decrease chances of infection.

10. Do not pick or irritate scales or crusts.
11. Avoid a needle site if the vessel feels hard or sore.
12. If possible, avoid any area with a hematoma, until discoloration disappears.
13. Call the dialysis unit if your arm becomes hot, red, swollen, appears infected, or if you can no longer hear the bruit.
14. Your partner should avoid contact with blood to reduce the chance of getting hepatitis. Gloves should be worn if there is any blood contact necessary.
15. When pulling the needles out, apply finger pressure just beyond the hole in the vein as well as directly over the insertion site.
16. If a hematoma forms after removing the needle, try to squeeze blood out from under the skin. This will decrease the pain and swelling.
17. If bleeding should occur after leaving the dialysis unit, apply pressure until the bleeding stops.

I am sure that Dora Bell is Reasons wife. Will be ordering death certi.
for Dora and for the Infant.

I can't find any connection to the others but when extra dollars come in I might send for some.

I call every cemetery in Chicago Ill. looking for Robert and Ida May Nanni. Daughter to Alexander, Henry K.

According to the info Clarence God. sent they are buried in Chicago.
None that I had phone numbers for had any Goddards what so ever. Maybe a little town on the outskirts or one that I do not have phone number for.
I had Illinois check there records for death on Ida. They searched 1891 thru 1900 both both and found nothing.

BREWER FAMILY

On November 11, 1888, Sarah Elizabeth Jackson, born June 1, 1870 in Silver Hill, West Virginia, daughter of John and Lydia Cain Jackson was married to William Emory Brewer, born March 5, 1865 in Fairview, West Virginia, son of Ezra and Hannah McGill Brewer. Both were of Dutch Irish descent. They were members of the St. James Methodist Church of Smithfield.

They owned a farm and Mr. Brewer was employed by the South Penn Oil Company in its road department during the oil field boom.

They had seventeen children, one of the largest families in the southeast section of Wetzel County. There were eleven boys and six girls. One son died in childhood. Members of the family are scattered through the oil producing section of Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas.

Mr. Brewer was a life long active Democrat and wielded considerable influence.

Mr. Brewer was seventy-seven years old when he passed away on August 16, 1942.

William Emory Brewer and Sarah E. Jackson Brewer

Mrs. Brewer was a healthy and resourceful woman who, despite long hours of work in rearing a family of seventeen, maintained a pleasant disposition. She remains a precious legacy to those who survived her. She passed away April 5, 1954, at the age of eighty-five leaving 145 descendants. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on November 11, 1938. Both are buried in the Baker cemetery in Smithfield.

Surviving members of the immediate family are:

Charles Brewer, Smithfield, West Virginia
William Brewer, Ponca City, Oklahoma
Elvira Powell, Smithfield, West Virginia
Virginia Kendall, Vincennes, Indiana
Virchie Kendall, Mannington, West Virginia

JACKSON FAMILY

A history of Ephraim Jackson, first ancestor to come to America and his descendants 1684 - 1960, was compiled and published by Jessie Calvin Cross.

There are several descendants of Ephraim Jackson living in Wetzel County. This book is in the New Martinsville Library. Submitted by: Arlene Brewer Cozart

BROCK FAMILY

Some members of the Brock family lived on Brock Ridge for over 112 years, which is fifteen miles East of New Martinsville. It all began when Joseph Brock brought his wife, Sarah, and eight children from Brockton, Pennsylvania. Their children were Burbridge, Abraham, Jane, Isaac, Asa, Elizabeth and Sarah Ellen. They came here somewhere between 1851 and 1854. Three more children were born after their arrival, namely, Thomas, Hannah and Mary Francis.

Travel was not by paved roads, but by covered wagon. They followed Little Fishing Creek, following what is now State Route 7. When they arrived at the foot of Limestone Hill, they stayed there for a year, living in a log cabin. They built a house then on what is today called Brock Ridge.

Thomas remained on the ridge, engaging in farming. He married Mary Mason to whom was born Ida. When Ida was just a baby, Mary caught on fire from the open fireplace and died within six weeks. Later, Thomas married Margaret Lemasters. Born to them was Forrest, Francis, Gratta, Lydia, Gladys and Jessie. Francis and Lydia died in infancy. Jessie, who was attending West Liberty State College was killed in an automobile accident. Forrest remained on the ridge. Ida married John Bland and lived along Route 7. Gratta married Locke Rine and Gladys married Blain Taylor and both families moved into Ohio.

Forrest entered the First World War, serving farm. Four children were born to this marriage. Helen and Kathleen. Helen married Marie Riggs and lives in W. where he drives truck. Jewel, Hele Kathleen graduated from God's Bible and College and the University of Cincinnati married Richard Sparks, and married William Graden, an accountant both live in Cincinnati. Kathleen married Moose, a minister and lives in Urbana. All three are school teachers. Helen Kathleen have two children each.

Forrest retired from farming in 1959 farm was sold to Robert Huggins in because of failing health. The Mont M property on Maple Avenue in New M ville was bought.

In 1979 he was forced to enter a nursing home because of a series of strokes. He entered a nursing home near his daughter Kathleen. Dessie resided with her. After Forrest's death in 1979, Dessie sold the house in Martinsville and has continued to make residence with her daughter.

While the Brock's lived on Brock Ridge three served in the Civil War, one in each of the two World Wars. One Civil War veteran is buried in Arlington Cemetery in Washington, D. C.

1966 ended over 112 years of a Brock on Brock Ridge in Wetzel County, Virginia. Submitted by Elton L. Moose

BROHARD FAMILY

John Brohard, born March 4, 1762 from Amsterdam with two brothers while young. John later fought the Revolution. "Mad Anthony" Wayne. After the war married Mary Randall of Pennsylvania moved to Flemington, West Virginia.

To this Union were born nine children among them was Nimrod Sr., who married Marilla Baily.

There were ten children born to this Union among them was Nimrod Jr. He and his brothers fought through the Civil War with Union Army. Nimrod Jr. was the seventh of the family, and according to legend at time the seventh son would make a doctor. So he was nicknamed and also known as "Dock."

Soon after the war he married Elizabeth "Betty" Sayre of Bridgeport, West Virginia and moved to the headwaters of Piney, where they later owned over three hundred acres.
